

Advertising never determines the followings

How a product will be designed

How it will be distributed

And at what price

Functions of Advertising

Informs the buyers about the existence of the product or service

Provokes to try and reminds benefits and features if any

Offers incentive to buy and helps stand out

Builds some basics of brand's image

Cost effective way to reach audience

It persuades people to take action